Marcel van den Brink, MD, PhD (Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center) and Edmund K. Waller, MD, PhD (Winship Cancer Institute of Emory University) are proud to chair the 9th Annual BMT Winter Workshop. The event will occur prior to the VIRTUAL 62nd Annual Meeting of the American Society of Hematology (ASH). The BMT workshop is also being offered via a virtual meeting platform with numerous rapid-fire talks on late-breaking research in bone marrow transplant. Presenters will discuss recent unpublished clinical and pre-clinical data pertinent to hematopoietic stem cell transplantation and cell therapy. This year, we are planning a session regarding COVID-19 and cell therapy. We will have a combination of 20 pre-recorded 5-minute talks with live mid-workshop breakout discussions between speakers and attendees on the latest and greatest late-breaking advances in our field.

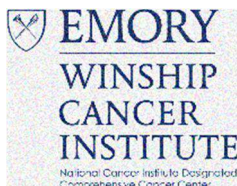

Agenda: Details will be announced in the coming months. Please check the registration website for updates at: <https://winshipcancer.emory.edu/bmt-workshop>
