Marcel van den Brink, Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center
Edmund K. Waller, Emory University, Winship Cancer Institute

12:05 - 3:25 PM ET

Workshop - 16 speakers

Section 1. Allogeneic SCT and GvHD

Section 2. CAR T

Networking Chat Rooms: 20 mins - 1:35 - 1:55PM ET

Section 3. NK Cells and Tolerance

Section 4. Covid-19

3:25- 3:30 PM ET

Closing Remarks

PRESENTATIONS

SECTION 1: Allogeneic SCT and GvHD

Chair: Dr. Waller

1.1 “IL-23R signaling by IL-39 potentiates T cell pathogenicity in acute GvHD”

Xue-Zhong Yu, MD, MS, MBA Medical University of South Carolina

1.2 “Spatiotemporal single-cell profiling of gastrointestinal GvHD reveals invasive and tissue-resident memory T cell states”

Victor Tkachev, PhD Dana-Farber Cancer Institute

1.3 “Unique metabolomic patterns at day 100 associated with later GvHD in Children post HSCT in the ABLE cohort”

Kirk R. Schultz, MD, FCAHS BC Children’s Hospital and Research Institute

1.4 “Gut microbiome as a predictor of acute GvHD response to treatment”

Armin Rashidi, MD University of Minnesota

1.5 “Reg3α As A Biomarker for Risk of Gastro-Intestinal cGvHD”

Sophie Paczesny, MD, PhD MUSC College of Medicine

SECTION 2: CAR T

Chair: Dr. Waller

2.1 “Engineering T-cells for the therapy of acute GvHD”

Max Mamonkin, PhD Baylor College of Medicine

2.2 “Overcoming the barriers to CAR T cell infiltration in solid tumors”

Stanley Riddell, MD Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center

2.3 “Donor-derived CD19 CAR-T cell therapy of relapse of CD19-positive B-ALL post-allotransplant”

Xiaoqi (Olivia) Wang, PhD Student Xinqiao Hospital, Chongqing, China

2.4 “Association of the Intestinal Microbiota on CAR T cell Responses”

Melody Smith, MD, MS Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center

NETWORKING: Please return to HUB and enter the zoom meeting rooms where speakers from session 1 and 2 will be available to answer questions along with other attendees.

SECTION 3: NK cells and Tolerance

Chair: Dr. van den Brink

3.1 “Off-the-shelf universally alloreactive Natural Killer cell therapy for refractory Acute myeloid leukemia”

Sumithira Vasu, MBBS Ohio State University Comprehensive Cancer Center

3.2 “Effective Targeting of NPM1 Mutated AML with a Novel Mem-NK Cell Based CAR”

Rizwan Romee, MD Dana-Farber Cancer Institute

3.3 “Cytokine-induced memory-like natural killer (CIML NK) cells exhibit a cytotoxic phenotype, tremendous expansion, and long-term persistence after infusion post- haploidentical stem cell transplantation”

Roman Shapiro, MD FRCPC Dana-Farber Cancer Institute

3.4 “CD45 antibody-drug conjugate and JAK inhibition overcome immunological barriers to allogeneic hematopoietic stem cell transplantation”

Stephen P. Persaud, MD, PhD Washington University School of Medicine

SECTION 4: COVID-19

Chair: Dr. van den Brink

4.1 “Generation of glucocorticoid resistant SARS-CoV-2 T-cells for adoptive cell therapy”

Rafet Basar, MD MD Anderson Cancer Center

4.2 “COVID-19: #WearAMask and other lessons learned from NYC”

Miguel-Angel Perales, MD Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center

4.3 “COVID 19 and HSCT in Europe”

Nicolaus Kröger, MD University Hospital Hamburg, Germany
