The University of Georgia and Winship Cancer Institute of Emory University share a longstanding commitment to accelerating cancer prevention, diagnosis, and treatment and educating the next generation of cancer researchers. The 2025 UGA-Winship Cancer Research Summit will focus on exploring the strengths and synergies of the two institutions, sharing knowledge and partnering for impact in the state of Georgia and beyond. Students, trainees and research faculty are encouraged to attend.

Program Highlights:

- Keynote presentation by Robert Coffey, MD, of Vanderbilt University Medical Center
- Faculty and trainee presentations from each institution on emerging topics that span basic, translational, clinical and population sciences.
- Poster session reception featuring student and trainee research

Poster Abstract Deadline: March 24, 2025
